The Tell-Tale of Trouble

The minute you find yourself focusing what you are undertaking to read you need glasses. But being fitted to glasses is a very serious matter—and the BEST skill and experience should by all means be employed; or a bad matter may be made worse.

Our Mr. Feast conducts the test himself for this reason—and goes still further by superintending the laboratory work on the lenses. You can, therefore, consult us with perfect safety.

A CAPITAL VISITOR.

MISS BARBARA FERNALD, of Boston, Mass., who is staying with Senator and Mrs. William Alden Smith.

IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

MR. AND MRS. TAFT ACCEPT NEW YORK COURTESIES.

Hospitalities for Miss Taft and Miss Cromwell—Personal Notes.

Mrs. Taft went to New York yesterday and is staying at the home of Mr. Henry W. Taft. Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant will give a luncheon for Mrs. Taft at Sherry's tomorrow, and Mrs. Winifred Holt will entertain both the President and Mrs. Taft at dinner. Thursday Mr. Henry Taft will give a luncheon for the President, who will make a short visit also to New York this week.

Miss Helen Taft was honor guest at a dinner for young people last night, given by Miss Alice Vandergrift, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Vandergrift, who is in mourning. Mrs. G. T. Summerlin, wife of Capt. Summerlin, secretary of the American embassy at Tokyo, chaperoned the party.

The Italian ambassador and Marchesa Cusani Confolonieri will give a dinner in honor of Miss Taft.

The first of the garden parties this season will be held at the White House May 5. Mrs. John Hay Hammond will entertain at a reception on that evening in the White House. The garden party of the executive board of the woman's welfare department of the National Civic Federation, which will hold a meeting here, Mrs. Taft has extended her invitation also to the garden party.

Mrs. Oliver Cromwell and Miss Louise Cromwell of Washington are in New York for a few days, and will stay at the Hotel Wolcott. They will return in time to attend the dinner Miss Catherine Britton is to give Saturday evening for Miss Cromwell and her fiancé, Walter B. Brooks, Jr., of Baltimore. Miss Gladys Hinkle, another bride, will give a party on Sunday evening, May 7, for Miss Cromwell.

The Speaker and Mrs. Champ Clark have taken an apartment at 1509 16th street and will at once take possession. They have been living at the Toronto Hotel, and are in the sixth floor of the building, and is a spacious one of fourteen rooms.

Clark had expected to go to Atlantic City, but has deferred her departure until she is comfortably established in her new home.

Mr. Edward J. Hickey, assistant clerk of the Senate, and his wife, Mrs. Hickey, and Miss Margaret J. Dee were united in marriage by Rev. J. B. Pittar at 10:30 this morning in St. Aloysius Church. The bride and bridegroom entered the church to the strains of the "Lohengrin" wedding march, and were preceded to the altar by the bridesmaid, Miss Nellie M. Dee, sister of the bride, and the best man, John J. Casey.

The bride was attired in a white satin empire gown, trimmed in white with black ribbon and carried a shower bouquet of lilies.

The bridesmaid wore a lavender silk draped in marquisette and a picture hat with black ribbon and carried a bouquet of lilies.

The bride's gift to the bridegroom was a beautiful lavallier with amethysts and pearls. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a diamond-studded bracelet.

The couple left immediately for an extended trip through the north, and will be gone several weeks.

The traveling suit of the bride was made serge with a hat to match.

Miss Mary Agnes Doyle entertained at a breakfast in honor of Miss Edith Wynne Mathison. Among those present were Miss Flora McGill, Miss Keane, Miss Florence Wynne and Mrs. Beecher.

Dr. and Mrs. Guy Fairfax Whiting gave a theater party last night, entertaining friends of their daughters and later at supper at their home. Their guests included Mrs. Sherman Miles, Miss Elizabeth Miles, Miss Hildegard Nagel, Miss Mary McCauley, Miss Gladys Hinkle, Miss Adelaide Heath, Miss Wynne, Miss Florence McGill, Miss Keane, Miss Frances Dora, Miss Dora Clover, Mr. George O. Totten, Lieut. Commander By-

Bird Store Destroyed by Fire.

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 25.—Fire destroyed this morning another building on Chartres street, near Canal, occupied by William Bartlett's bird store. The loss is estimated at $50,000. A large stock of parrots, canaries, monkeys and pet stock was carried off, and it is thought that the store was either burned or smothered to death by smoke.
